

Getting started with Documents

Documents allows you to access all your documents in the cloud and on your device. Let's take a look at the basics.

Get Connected to the Cloud.

To make Documents aware of the documents you have in the cloud, go to the Settings' Online Account panel and add your cloud service provider, such as Google. Once authenticated, make sure the Documents switch is turned on. From now on, your documents are available.

